Our worthy friend Dr. W. S. Barton has left for a trip to England, his native home; The doctor is accompanied by his grand daughter Miss A. Stokes. We wish the tourists a safe and pleasant voyage, and hope the doctor will remember the "Times" on the wing.

Wood's Household Magazine, for May has an abundance of excellent reading-There is the real go ahead snap to this periodical which entitles it to much credit, and we cannot name one that will afford an equal amount of entertainment and instruction for so little money. The number before us contains among other artieles a paper entitled "Poor Jack," by F. W. Holland, in the interest of seamen; "The Child in the Church," by Mary Hartwell; "Kin and Kad," by H. V Osborne; "Dumb Days," by Caroline B. LeRow, and some good poetry. There are several illustrated articles, the New York Fashions, Architectural Designs, We., &c. The illustration on Decoration Day is just the thing. Price of Magazine one dollar per year. Address, Wood's Household Magazine, Newburgh, N. Y.
